

Exercise 1 : about George Orwell

Real name :

Nationality :

Year of birth :

Place of Birth : Town : Country :

Spent most of his childhood in justify :

A famous public school he went to :

Quote a sentence showing that :

a) His parents didn't have enough money to pay for the public schools fees

b) People at school were not kind to pupils who were not from an upper-class background :

Right or Wrong ?

As a consequence he passed his exam and had a choice between going to Oxford or Cambridge.

As a consequence he didn't aim at Oxford or Cambridge and did something else.

justify by quoting the text :

He wrote three novels : write them in chronological order

He died of _____ in _____ .

Exercise 2

The jobs Orwell did in his life and the countries where he worked:

Exercise 3 What type of writer he was and why he wrote

Orwell was a _____ writer.

He was a _____ and yet he could criticise the _____ as much as he did the _____ .

He felt it was important to tell everyone about _____ that's why he wrote his first novel _____ .

According to him the worst enemy of the modern man was _____ and _____ .

He was against any form of _____, or _____ . And of course he would fight any government who was using _____ .

These are themes he developed in his novels _____ and _____ .

