

November the fifth is a special night in England...

Visit the sites below to find out more about it and answer the questions:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/dna/h2g2/A199488>

<http://www.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/customs/Guy.html>

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/dna/h2g2/A201646>

What is that night also called? (two different names)

.....
What is this ?

.....
What do people do on this special night?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

What do they eat?

.....
.....
.....
.....

What do children make the day before?

.....
.....
.....

What do they ask people ? What for?

.....
.....

Write a rhyme they recite

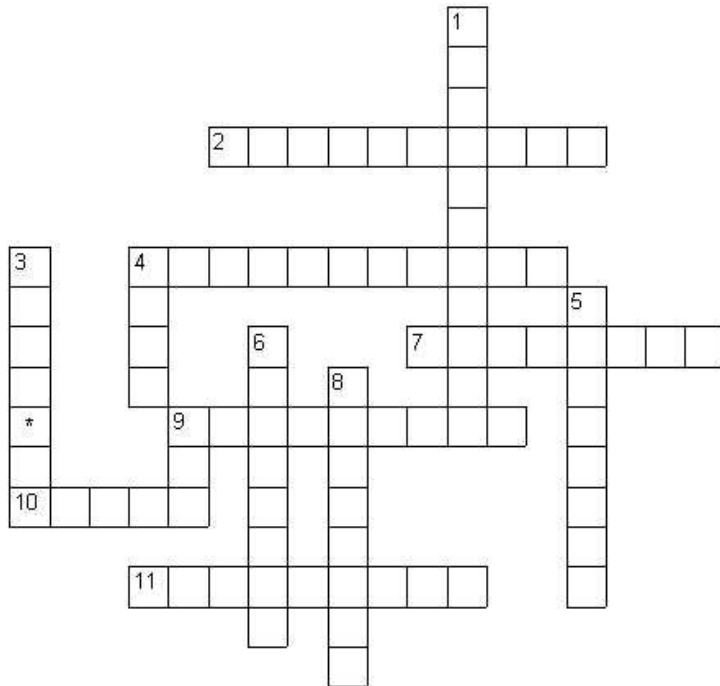

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

What do the English commemorate on this special night?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

Complete the crosswords with vocabulary related to the fifth of November

5th of November

Across

- 2. what Guy Fawkes and his friends wanted to blow up
- 4. many of them are organized in towns all over England on this night
- 7. Guy Fawkes' religion
- 9. what Guy Fawkes and his friends used as explosives
- 10. what the kids ask for
- 11. a catherine wheel is one of them

Down

- 1. to honour the memory of some important event
- 3. what you use a bomb for
- 4. make secret plans
- 5. what Guy Fawkes took part in
- 6. what happened to Guy Fawkes (past participle)
- 8. a large outdoor fire
- 9. you cook them in the fire
- 10. the effigy of Guy Fawkes

Use the passive to complete these sentences

Blow up / Burn / Call / Cook / Discover / Execute / Forget / Let off / Light / Remember / Tell / Torture / Treat / Wrap

A group of Catholics were unhappy with the way they by King James the first and before him by Queen Elisabeth the first. That's why they plotted to kill the king and decided they would blow up the parliament when the king was in it.

Guy Fawkes before he could blow up the Parliament. He so he gave the name of all the people who were involved in the Gunpowder plot. Later on he

Now every 5th of November Guy Fawkes and people celebrate the fact the Parliament and the King

Huge bonfires, fireworks, effigies of Guy Fawkes which "the Guy".....

Potatoes..... in foil and in the bonfires.

In the rhymes the Englishthat the Gunpowder Plot should never ever.....